

DAVID EUGENE LAMBERT

dlambert@apu.edu

Education

Claremont Graduate University. 2008. Ph.D. in U.S. History

Stanford University. 1970. M.B.A. Emphases in Finance and International Business.

University of Pittsburgh. 1966. M.A. in Political Science.

Georgetown University. 1965. B.S.F.S. in International Affairs from the School of Foreign Service. Phi Beta Kappa.

Employment History

Assistant Professor of History

Azusa Pacific University

Azusa, CA.

June 1991-Present

Teach eight undergraduate courses a year from the following portfolio: United States History (two-semester sequence), Colonial America, Iraq War, Vietnam War, Emergence of Modern America, Modern America, Research and Writing.

Vice President for Business and Finance (+Development)

Azusa Pacific University

June 1984-June 1991

Served as Chief Business and Financial officer of the university. Key responsibilities included oversight of finance and budgeting, human resources, facilities, financial aid, auxiliary activities, and data processing. For one year, in addition to my normal duties, I supervised the development, alumni, and public relations departments.

Accountant--Management Consultant

Rooney, Ida, Nolt, and Ahern

Oakland, CA.

October 1981-May 1984

Spearheaded the firm's marketing program; prepared individual, fiduciary, and corporate financial statements and tax returns; worked on audits of a variety of clients; performed management consulting assignments.

Passed all four parts of the CPA exam on the first attempt.

Chief Business and Financial Officer (+Development)
Simpson College
San Francisco, CA.
April 1975-October 1981

My position required hands-on management of all the college's non-academic departments in a setting of chronically tight cash and insufficient staff. For three years, in addition to my normal duties, I served as our marketing contact person with the fund-raising consulting firm of Gonser Gerber Tinker Stuhr.

Commercial Lender/Administrative Assistant
Bank of America and Union Bank
San Francisco, CA.
June 1970-April 1975

My entire time as a commercial lender was spent in the downtown S.F. financial district using my training in sales and finance to deliver banking products to corporations. Assigned for one year as administrative assistant to the 4th-ranking executive of the Bank of America.

Infantry Lieutenant
U.S. Army
September 1966-August 1968

Served initially in the U.S. as second-in-command of an infantry training unit and team leader of a military teaching group. Completed a tour of duty in Vietnam as an advisor to the South Vietnamese Army. Awarded Bronze Star.

Languages

Fluent in French. Strong in Spanish. Reading knowledge of Dutch, German, and Italian.

Family

Married; no children. Wife (Ph.D. in Comparative Literature from U.C., Berkeley) is Professor of English and Director of Faculty Research at APU.